No. 8 Session of 2024

INTRODUCED BY _____ March 07, 2024

REFERRED TO LABOR & INDUSTRY COMMITTEE

Employment Incentivization Act

As it relates to repealing unemployment compensation and introducing a program aimed to promote employment.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Program Name

(a) The Unemployment Compensation program shall be renamed as "Employment Incentivization"

Section 2. Unemployment Compensation

Unemployment Compensation shall be amended as follows:

(a) The available period for benefits shall be reduced to 16
weeks (4 months);

(b) A new system of compensation for those who qualify
for benefits:

(1) Payment of benefits shall be contingent upon employment status of participant;

(i) Participants who become employed while receiving unemployment are permitted to continue receiving payments;

(2) Payment structure variance;

(i) Participants who become employed during the program shall receive half the amount of weekly payments, on top of their job salary;

(ii) Participants who remain unemployed shall continue to receive the full amount of their weekly payments for the duration of the program.

Section 3. This program shall take effect on January 1st, 2025.
